EVENTS IN WYOMING COUNTY

Fun Events for Everyone!

The Wyoming County Fair is a classic summer tradition that brings together agriculture, entertainment, and hometown pride. Every August, the fairgrounds come alive with livestock shows, tractor pulls, carnival rides, and grandstand events that celebrate the region's rural heritage alongside midway rides, cotton candy, and snow cones! From prize-winning farm animals to Ferris wheels, the Fair invites visitors to experience one of the region's most beloved summer traditions.

Autism Nature Trail

ADVENTURE AROUND EVERY CORNER!

It only takes a few minutes in Letchworth State Park to understand why it's stolen the hearts of so many visitors. From the dramatic Genesee River Gorge to crashing waterfalls and soaring bald eagles, the gorgeous views are bound to take your breath away—and leave you craving more of this magical atmosphere! So what are you waiting for? Lace up those hiking boots, and let the adventures begin!

A GIFT TO THE NEXT GENERATIONS

Letchworth State Park wouldn't exist without William Pryor Letchworth and his love for nature. Captivated by the gorgeous views over the Genesee River Gorge, Letchworth spent nearly 50 years buying up the nearby land to preserve it from industrialization. In 1907, he generously gifted 1,000 acres to the state as a public park, paving the way for the 14,000 acres of unspoiled beauty we get to enjoy today!

FIVE AWESOME LETCWORTH ADVENTURES

- 1. AUTISM NATURE TRAIL

This vibrant trail is a first-of-its-kind nature experience specifically designed for visitors on the autism spectrum. It's one ADA-compliant mile of fun for all ages and abilities!
- 2. TAKE A HOT AIR BALLOON RIDE

See Letchworth State Park from the sky in an unforgettable ride with Balloons over Letchworth!
- 3. GO RIVER RAFTING

Take on the rapids of Genesee River Gorge with a rafting excursion from Adventure Calls Outfitters.
- 4. TAKE A HIKE

Explore over 66 miles of pristine nature with 30 hiking trails, ranging from easy to moderate.
- 5. RIDE A BIKE

Get a rare glimpse of the Finger Lakes Trail by bike on this 22-mile trail along the Genesee River Gorge.

Winter is Wild in Wyoming County!

COZY UP TO WINTER FUN!

Nestled just east of Lake Erie, Wyoming County averages more than 110" of snow each year, turning it into a winter playground with attractions and activities for every kind of visitor! Craving time in the snow? Get your blood pumping with cross-country skiing and snowmobiling, or take it slow with sledding and snowshoeing. Prefer to stay warm while you take in the sights? Our towns and villages are extra-magical covered in snow and offer plenty of opportunities to warm up with fine dining, comfort food, and craft beverages.
